Dear Terry,

It is with great pleasure that I write to tell you that the Council of Imperial College London has resolved to confer on you the Imperial College Medal in recognition of the outstanding contribution you have made to the life and work of Imperial College. I cannot imagine a more deserving member of staff and I very much look forward to presenting this Medal to you.

As you very well know, in normal circumstances we would present your award at a Graduation Ceremony at the Royal Albert Hall, where you would be presented to the Chair and Members of the Council, academic staff and recent graduates and their parents. The need for social distancing to protect public health during the pandemic has led us to arrange virtual celebrations until it is safe to return to in-person ceremonies and events. Our events team will be in contact with you on our plans for upcoming virtual celebrations and future opportunities to celebrate this honour.

I would also like add my own personal congratulations for this well-deserved honour. I look forward to hearing of your acceptance.

With my best wishes,

Professor Alice P. Gast
President
